Girls Conference Tournament

By: Marco and Polo

The girls basketball team made quite a run this year in the Lewis and Clark Tournament. They started off playing Wakefield at home on January 27th. They took an easy win with a final score of 43-15. Next, they played Plainview, for the second time this season, in Winnebago on January 30th. They played a tough game coming out on top 32-26 after an overtime. Coming back home for the last time this year on February 2nd, the girls played Homer also for the second time. Again, they came out and won another game, which ended 47-32, to move into the finals. After a reschedule, on February 7th the girls played in Laurel in the championship game. They played well, but came home with a runner-up after a 13-26 loss to Ponca.

Randolph Vs. Crofton

Kengar and Babwe

The Cardinals headed up to Crofton last Friday to face off for late season game. The boys ended up winning for varsity but the JV lost. The JV ended up losing with a score 13-38. Justin Haselhorst had 6 points followed by John Munter with 4 and Avery Bermel with 2. Cadein Villwok also tagged in a free-throw for a point. The varsity however had a different story starting out the half 38-19. It slowed down for the boys in the second half though getting outscored in the third and fourth quarters. The cardinals still held together finishing on top with a score 62-51. Merrix Denn led the cardinals with 32 points, 5 boards, and 3 steals. Jud Hixson ended the game with 11 points, 6 boards, and 4 assists. Mason Nordhues ended with 10 points, 5 assists, and 3 steals. Keaton Backhaus had 7 points, 6 boards, and 3 steals. Carter Schnoor also tagged on 2 points, 2 boards, and 3 assists.

The lady Cardinals struggled on both JV and varsity. The girls jv team lost by a little over 10. They came back from a tough deficit but could not hang around with the Warriors. The varsity team struggled a little more with a final score of 23-45. The lady cards could not compete with the Warriors early on getting outscored 8-22 at half. Jaiden Taylor finished with 7 points. Cindy Haselhorst Finished with 4 points and 3 boards. Carlie Nordhues finished with 3 points. Addy Villwok had 3 points and 2 boards. Emma Bermel finished with 2 points and 2 boards. Carlee Thies had 2 points. Sophia Harder had 2 points and 4 boards.

Junior High Basketball Feb. 10

By: Maesik and Kayla

The boys and girls played Plainview and Wausa on February 10th. The boys and girls last games were sadly lost. Boys losing 47-14 to Plainview with Collin Beal scoring all 14 points, way to go Collin!! Then as they kept on keeping on they played Wausa and lost again with the score of 49-19, Andy Hausman with 3 strong free throws. Go cardinals.

Girls played Plainview and lost 21-17. Ariel Fye with a strong 7 points Grace Nordhues and Erin Engel 3 points, and Emma Munter and Jessa Baker with 2. The girls were losing 11-1 in the beginning, then redeemed themselves a little before the final score.

They played their last game against the Wausa Viking as a consolation game. Losing 20-9 Ariel Fye with 4 points, Jessa and Grace with 2 and Erin E with 1. They were shooting a little cold in the begging but thats okay. They came out the best they could and finished up their spirit with high spirit and smiling face. Way to go Cardinal girls! You Rock.
